BARYE

With clearest thought, keen sight, and pliant hands
 He caught the meaning of those lower lives
 Where Being ever onward, upward strives
 Till in the human it transcendant stands.
 The grace and beauty of their strength he saw,
 Thrilled at the pathos of their limits straight,
 And found within their dumb, unhonored state
 The mighty impress of impelling Law.
 World-welcome to old Truth made new is aye
 The cross or fagot, e'en though born unseen ;
 But unto this rare soul must power have been,
 Mid lone despite of Fame, joy ever high,
 Since in himself through Genius he could know
 Life-range from creature sense unto creating glow !
